Richardson Co deputies make multiple arrests

(KLZA)-- Three people are facing various charges in Richardson County following arrests by the Richardson County Sheriff's Department.

Thursday Christina Eichelberger of Seneca, Kansas, wanted on a Richardson County warrant for attempt of a Class 3A or 4 Felony was extradited from Nemaha County to Richardson County where she will either pay her fines or serve her time.

In 1999, Eichelberger was sentenced to pay a fine and restitution of more than $1,000.

The Sheriff's Department received information, from the Kansas Highway Patrol that Eichelberger was residing in Seneca. The KHP arrested Eichelberger and she was extradited to Richardson County.

Jacqueline Collier was also extradited from Nemaha County, Kansas on a warrant for possession of Methamphetamine.

Also Thursday, Richardson County Deputies stopped Retta Feldkamp in Humboldt. She was arrested following an investigation, for conspiracy to distribute Methamphetamine.

The Richardson County K9 Unit was deployed and a probable cause search of the vehicle was conducted with suspected Methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia located.

In addition to being arrested on the warrant charges, Feldkamp is facing new charges of possession of Methamphetamine and possession of drug paraphernalia.
