BCDS received many compliments through the years from customers regarding Donna's friendly, helpful personality when working in the Thriftshop. An employer once said that Donna was "the face of BCDS".

She was both the President and the Secretary of the Brown/Doniphan Council of Community members. Donna was always a leader regarding political issues. She was a loyal friend to other BCDS folks and was especially proud of her family, especially her sister Sue, and loved spending time with them and sharing stories about them with her friends at BCDS.
