

Sabetha , KS

Leo Frank Kruse, 97, of Sabetha, peacefully passed away August 26, 2020.

He was born in rural Hamlin, Kansas on February 5, 1923, the son of Daniel and Amalia Brockhoff Kruse. Leo attended primary school at Hamlin, and spent one year at Hamlin High School, where he left in 1939. As a child, he loved playing with grasshoppers, so he earned the nickname “Grasshopper.” People who knew him well called him “Grass” for short.

He married Bertha Gerdes on November 7, 1943, at St. Paul’s Lutheran Church in Fairview, Kansas. Leo worked as a tractor mechanic for Alvin Dietrich in Falls City, Nebraska. In 1948, he started farming on the David Stewart farm and in 1954, moved to the Lewis Helvern farm. He drove semi-trucks for James Bartram from 1964 to 1984, when Bartram sold his trucks. Leo also farmed for himself, until he “officially” retired in 2014. He still liked telling his son and grandsons how to farm, even after his last harvest! Some of Leo’s free time was spent playing cards, watching the news, and watching ball games on television.

Every time that any of his grandkids came to visit, his eyes would light up with excitement and joy! He always told them how he was going to “learn” them something! He was a huge fan of Bertha’s cooking, especially her peaches, which he continued to ask for during his last hospital stay.

Leo was a member of St. Paul’s Lutheran Church of Fairview, where he had served as trustee through the years.

Survivors include his wife Bertha of Sabetha, a brother Kenneth Kruse (Mary Sue) of Arkansas, grandchildren: Jeremy Kruse (Christy) of Wamego, their children Emma, Jack, EllieKate; Jamie “Boog” Kruse (Teri) of rural Morrill, their children Maggie (fiancé Lane Holliday), Morganne, Jared; Janie Murk (Eric) of Junction City, Kansas, their dogs Lily and BJ.

Preceding him in death are his children: Larry, Darlene, and Jann, daughter in law Kathryn Kruse, parents, and eleven siblings.

A Celebration of Leo's life is planned for 10:30 a.m. Monday, August 31, at Zion Lutheran Church Hiawatha, with Pastor Michael Dunaway officiating. Interment will follow at Mt. Hope Cemetery, Hiawatha.
