Mary was born October 22, 1929 in Atchison, KS, the daughter of Frank and Elsie (DeMoss) Pierce. She first started working at Leo's Restaurant as a waitress and then Saunders/Golden Star from 1955 to 1961 and 1969 to 2004 retiring after forty-one years. Mary attended Trinity Lutheran Church. She bowled until she was eighty-four years old, having received in 2001 from WIBC the Grand Duchess Award. Mary bowled on the Golden Star team, the Early Bird League and Senior Citizens League. She went to Kansas State Bowling Tournaments and even bowled in the National Tournament in Reno, NV, twice. Mary lived on Potato Hill all her life and she and her daughter Mary Jane Sowers were the first to drive across the new Potato Hill Bridge. She also enjoyed playing Farkle, five Crown Card Game and going to the casino and car races with her grandkids. Mary also enjoyed watching her daughter's hummingbirds and the KC Royals and Chiefs games.

Mary married Boyd E. "Newt" Reynolds on March 12, 1954. He preceded her in death on August 1, 2008. Survivors include a daughter, Mary Jane and Phil Sowers, Atchison, KS, two granddaughters; Melissa Sowers and Laura and Kyle McBride.

She was also preceded in death by her parents and siblings, Elmer, Irvin, Marvin, Harvey, Lawrence Pierce, Ruth Shockey, Annie Hays, Lois Walker and an infant sister.
