Highland Teen Certified as Adult in Child Sex Case

(KNZA)--A Highland teenager has been certified as an adult in a Doniphan County child sex case.

17-year-old Lewis Davis is charged with a felony count of aggravated indecent liberties with a child under the age of 14.

The Kansas Chief reports Davis was certified as an adult in the case following a hearing this week in a Doniphan County courtroom.

He remains in the Doniphan County Jail.
