Auburn Council Discusses Public Statements Made by Mayor

(KLZA) During the Auburn City Council meeting this week one of the agenda items was discussion and possible action on enacting a city policy for city representatives and officials on releasing information and or statements regarding City conduct, business or future business.

Mayor Scott Kudrna said Council member Katy Billings put the item on the agenda. (play audio :32 seconds)

Mayor Kudrna said that he was simply speaking about his thoughts since becoming Mayor and that such restrictions would go against the first amendment. (play audio :23 seconds)

Kudrna said legal counsel suggested no action to stop someone from expressing their opinions and thoughts should be taken. (play audio :08 seconds)
