Moran among Senators Opposing UN Arms Trade Treaty (KAIR) -- U.S. Senator Jerry Moran of Kansas has introduced a concurrent resolution co-sponsored by 28 of his Senate colleagues which argues that a United Nations Arms Trade Treaty undermines Constitutional freedoms of American gun owners.

Moran spoke on the resolution at a press conference in Washington Thursday.

Among the co-sponsors is the Senior Senator from Kansas, Pat Roberts.

On Monday, the Obama Administration will continue to engage in a new round of negotiations of the U.N. Arms Trade Treaty in New York.
