

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=27231>

Atchison Commissioner Named To State Role

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman, long known for her local civic leadership, has been appointed to the Kansas Credit Union Council by Governor Sam Brownback.

Governor Brownback announced the appointment Friday of Rita Hartman to a three year term. Hartman is currently the credit union manager at Bradken Credit Union and is a member of the Atchison City Commission.

The Kansas Credit Union Council is a seven-member advisory council appointed by the Governor and advises the Kansas Department of Credit Unions on issues and needs of credit unions.

Many Signals Communications