St. Joseph Man Arrested On Drug Charges In Atchison

(KAIR)--A St. Joseph man is facing several drug related charges following the alleged discovery of illegal drugs in his possession.

According to Atchison Police Lieutenant Tim Stout, 22-year-old Tanner Bailey was found unconscious in vehicle located in the 900 block of U.S. 59 highway just before 7:30 Tuesday morning. When police investigated, they found what appeared to be marijuana, methamphetamine, and drug paraphernalia in his possession.

Bailey was booked into the Atchison County Jail on charges including possession of methamphetamine, possession of marijuana, and possession of drug paraphernalia.
