Atchison Man Sentenced In Burglary Cases

(KAIR)--An Atchison man, convicted on burglary related charges in two separate cases will spend just over three years in prison for the crimes.

28-year-old Joshua Spurlock was sentenced Monday in Atchison County District Court to 24 months in prison for the theft of several jars of coins from a residence in 2013.

In the second case, he was sentenced to 14 months for felony theft in connection with the theft of items from a purse belonging to an acquaintance last year.

Judge Martin Asher ordered the sentences to be served consecutively.
