Atchison Man Sentenced In Burglary Case

(KAIR)--An Atchison man, convicted on a charge stemming from a residential burglary, has been sentenced to two years of supervised probation.

20-year-old Chase Chapman appeared in Atchison County District Court Friday morning where he was sentenced on a charge of burglary of a dwelling.

Chapman was arrested in early January, after it was found that he had removed several saws from a property in December.

Chapman's accomplice, 21-year-old Atchison resident Brett Betts, was sentenced to two years in prison last month for the crime.
