Atchison Co Man Sentenced on Charges in Two Cases

(KNZA)--An Atchison County man convicted on charges of arson and battery in two separate cases in Brown County has been placed on 24-months supervised probation.

39-year-old Johnny Hogue was given a suspended prison sentence Monday on the charges. He was ordered to pay 55-hundred dollars restitution.

Hogue pleaded “no contest” to the arson charge in December.

He was convicted of setting fire to a 1998 Chevy Camaro in March of last year.

Hogue was later charged with sexual battery in a separate case, which was amended to battery.
