(KLZA)-- Arraignment for a Dawson woman charged in connection with a shooting last October has been continued to March 31 in Richardson County District Court.

44-year-old Natalie Auxier is charged with felony counts of conspiracy and being an accessory to a felony and a misdemeanor charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Auxier is charged in connection to events occurring on or about October 4, 2014 at a rural Dawson residence. On the conspiracy charge, Auxier is accused of promoting or facilitating the commission of attempted murder in the second degree. On the accessory charge, Auxier is accused of interfering with, hindering or attempting to delay or prevent the discovery, apprehension, prosecution, conviction or punishment of another. In addition, she is charged with having a concealed 9-millimeter semi-automatic handgun.

Authorities alleged Auxier told Joseph Senn Jr. of Craig, Missouri to shoot one of three men at the residence on October 4th. When she and Senn were arrested a 9-mm handgun was found on the passenger side of the vehicle where Auxier was allegedly riding.
