Falls City Man Sentenced in Two Cases

(KLZA)-- A Falls City facing charges in two separate cases has been sentenced to prison.

In the first case, 34-year-old Zachary Blunt was sentenced Tuesday in Richardson County District Court to a year in prison on each of two counts of attempted burglary. These sentences will be served concurrently.

In a second case, Blunt was sentenced a year in prison for attempted burglary, aid or abet. The sentence will be served consecutively to the sentence in first case.

A monetary judgement against Blunt and for the victim, Daryl Pfister, in the amount of $7,000 was awarded.
