Theft Reported In Atchison

(KAIR)--The Atchison Police Department is investigating a theft from a residence earlier this week.

Police Chief Mike Wilson says the theft took place sometime between 7:30-8:00 Monday morning at a home located in the 500 block of Q Street. An unknown suspect made forced entry through a rear door and removed a video game system and cash. Total loss in the case is approximately $500.

Police do not yet have any suspects in the case, but the search for leads continues.
