

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=48433>

HCC Hires New Vice-President for Finance & Operations

(KNZA)--Highland Community College has hired a new vice president for finance and operations at the college.

Daniel Erbert will be returning to Kansas, previously holding positions at Cloud County and Colby Community Colleges.

He's currently the Business Officer/Budget Director at Aims Community College in Greeley, Colorado, where he directs a $100 million budget and handles all the functions of the college's business office. Prior to that, Erbert was the Vice President of Business Affairs at Colby.

He will officially begin his new duties on July 1, with the possibility of being in Highland earlier to get started with those duties.

Many Signals Communications