

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=49113>

Fate Learned In Child Porn Case (KLZA)--Four years probation.

That's the sentence handed down for a Falls City man accused of possessing child pornography.

42-year-old Matthew Leaf learned his fate in Richardson County District Court Tuesday.

Leaf entered a plea of no contest to one count of possession of child pornography in April, avoiding a jury trial.

He was arrested in October 2014 following a near one year investigation by the Nebraska Attorney Generals Office.

According to court documents, a computer seized from Leaf's Falls City apartment contained numerous images of child pornography.

Many Signals Communications