

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=49811>

Ks National Guard Band to Perform in Holton

(KNZA)--The Kansas National Guard's 35th Infantry Division Band will present its "A Home Front Concert" series this month in a number of Kansas communities—including Holton.

The band will hold a concert in Holton Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Courthouse Square.

The concerts will include military marches, vocal music, patriotic tunes and big band selections along with popular rock. Each concert will also feature a special salute to veterans and their families.

The concerts are free and open to the public.

In the past, audiences have averaged from 400-500 people per concert.

Many Signals Communications