Air Force Guard Airman 1st Class Jesse L. Dooley graduates

Air Force Guard Airman 1st Class Jesse L. Dooley graduated from basic military training at Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, San Antonio, Texas.

The airman completed an intensive, eight-week program that included training in military discipline and studies, Air Force core values, physical fitness, and basic warfare principles and skills. Airmen who complete basic training earn four credits toward an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Dooley earned distinction as an honor graduate.

He is the husband of Rachel A. Dooley. He is also the son of Daniel W. Dooley of Atchison, Kan., and Pamela A. Anderson of Jacksonville, Fla.

The airman graduated in 2001 from Nathan Bedford Forrest High School, Jacksonville, Fla., and he earned a bachelor's degree in 2011 from Anderson University, Anderson, S.C.
