

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=50946>

Man Charged in Fatal Crash Waives Hearing

(KNZA)--A St Joseph man charged in connection with a fatal crash in January has been bound over for trial.

Daniel Ray Maddock waived his preliminary hearing Tuesday in a Buchanan County courtroom on a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

Police say Maddock was allegedly driving under the influence when he ran a stop sign at 12th and Church Streets in St. Joseph on January 3, striking another vehicle. His passenger, Richard Osborne, was killed in the crash.

A judge denied a motion to reduce Maddock's $60,000 bond as he awaits trial.

He is scheduled to be arraigned August 10th.

Many Signals Communications