

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=51600>

Boil Water Advisory Lifted in Reserve

(KNZA)--The Kansas Department of Health and Environment has lifted the boil water advisory for the Brown County community of Reserve.

The boil advisory was issued August 17th following a water main break.

KDHE said Thursday laboratory testing samples collected from the city of Reserve's public water supply indicate no evidence of contamination and all other conditions that placed the system at risk of contamination are deemed to be resolved.

Many Signals Communications