

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=51669>

Johnson-Brock School Board Meets in Special Session

(KLZA)-- The Johnson-Brock School Board met in special session last week.

Board members accepted the end of the fiscal year claims in the amount of $133,698 from the General Fund and $1,000 from the Depreciation Fund.

Superintendent Jeff Koehler provided information on the 2015-16-Fiscal Year Budget. Koehler also introduced the Nebraska Department of Education's new program entitled AQuESTT. The program is used to classify schools utilizing six measurements.

Many Signals Communications