

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=52572>

Tribal Council Retains Current Leadership

(KNZA)--No changes in leadership for the Kickapoo Tribal Council.

That follows the annual election of the Tribal Council, held Monday at the Golden Eagle Casino, west of Horton.

According to a press release from Council Chair Lester Randall, Adolph Cadue, Junior was elected to a vacant council seat, while Carla Cavin and Christina Wahwasuck were re-elected.

Once the elections to the council were complete, the Tribal Council reorganized, re-electing the current officers to their same roles. That includes Randall as Chair, Fred Thomas as Vice-Chair, Russell Bradley as Treasurer, and Carla Cavin as Secretary.

Randall says the re-election of officers “clearly indicates” that tribal members believe the Council is “moving in the right direction.”

Many Signals Communications