Woman Ordered Held Without Bond in Vehicle Thefts

(KNZA)--A Holton woman, accused of stealing two vehicles in Brown County, has been ordered held without bond.

A Brown County judge Wednesday also continued the preliminary hearing for 19-year-old Shelby Hopkins to December 9th.

Hopkins, who faces two counts of felony theft in separate cases, had been held on a total bond of $150,000.

She turned herself in to authorities September 2nd on a Brown County warrant in connection with the theft of a Chevy Suburban stolen from downtown Hiawatha on July 30th. The vehicle was recovered the following day in Horton.

Hopkins posted bond in the case, and then was taken into custody October 1st after a car stolen from Horton was recovered in Goff.
