

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=53617>

State Patrol Executes Search Warrant in Rulo

(KLZA)-- The Nebraska State Patrol served a search warrant at a home in Rulo on Friday as part of an ongoing investigation.

According to Public Information Coordinator Deb Collins, once the investigation is completed, information will be forwarded to the Richardson County Attorney's Office for review and determination of possible charges.

No information was provided on where the warrant was served or who was involved.

Many Signals Communications