Two Killed in Wreck North of Tecumseh, Neb

(KLZA)--Two people were killed Sunday afternoon in a two-vehicle wreck in southeast Nebraska.

According to a news release from the Johnson County Attorney's office, an eastbound semi tractor trailer and a south bound Ford Taurus collided at the intersection of State Highway's 41 and 50, north of Tecumseh.

Both occupants of the Taurus, 49-year-old Thomas Grof and 87-year-old Marie Grof, both of Tecumseh, were pronounced dead at the scene.

The semi driver, whose name hasn't been released, was not hurt.

The Johnson County Sheriff's Office and the Nebraska State Patrol are investigating the wreck.
