Doniphan Co Resident Seeks KS House

(KAIR)--A lifelong Doniphan County resident has announced his candidacy for the Kansas House of Representatives, seeking the 63rd District Seat. The position has long been held by Democrat Jerry Henry, of Cummings.

W. Brett Niebling, in a press release, says he is also running as a Democrat, looking to provide commonsense solution's to the state's issues, including addressing what he calls Governor Sam Brownback's "extreme political policies."

Niebling, who filed for election Thursday, says his key goals are education, the economy, and healthcare.

Niebling grew up on a farm outside of Highland, and returned there following time spent working in education and business.

He and his wife, Brittney, have two daughters, Brenna and Bristol. Brittney is a 3rd grade teacher at Doniphan West Elementary.

The Kansas Primary Election is set for August 2nd, followed by the General Election on November 8th.
