Local KS Legislator Seeking Re-election
(KNZA)--A local Kansas legislator is seeking re-election.

Randy Garber, of Sabetha, has filed for another two-year term representing the 62nd District in the Kansas House.

Garber, a Republican, is the first candidate to seek the seat, which he's held since 2011.

The 62nd District includes all of Brown and Nemaha Counties along with portions of Atchison and Jackson Counties.

Candidates have until noon, June 1st to file.

The Kansas primary election is set for August 2nd, and general election on November 8th.
