Two Additional Filings for Jackson Co Offices

(KNZA)-- Two additional candidates have filed for offices up for election this fall in Jackson County.

County Clerk Kathy Mick and County Treasurer Linda Gerhardt both filed Friday for re-election to another four-year term.

Sheriff Tim Morse filed Monday by petition to retain the seat he was elected to in 2012.

So far, the three face no opposition in their bid for re-election.

Candidates have until noon, June 1st to file. The Kansas primary election is set for August 2nd, and the general election for November 8th.
