Horton Attack Case Draws Prison Sentence

(KNZA)--A rural Horton woman charged in connection with an attack in Horton in late September that sent a man to the hospital has sentenced to more than 3 years in prison and ordered to pay more than $64,000 restitution.

22-year-old Ellen Keo was sentenced Friday in Brown County District Court to 38 months in prison on charges of aggravated battery, criminal possession of a weapon and possession of marijuana.

She pleaded no contest in December to the charges. In exchange for the plea, a charge of possession of drug paraphernalia was dismissed.

Keo was arrested in October following an investigation by the Horton Police Department.
