

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=55424>

Contract Extension Offered to Johnson-Brock Principal

(KLZA)-- The Johnson-Brock School Board met Monday night. During the meeting Board members reviewed in closed session the job performance of Principal Lucas Dalinghaus and approved an agreement for the 2016-17 school year with the Johnson-Brock Education Association.

Following a closed session for the job evaluation the Board voted unanimously to offer Principal Dalinghaus a contract as K-12 Principal for two years with a salary of $83,000 for the first year and $86,000 for the second year. A contract was offered to Benjamin Ideus to serve as Special Education Instructor for the 2016-17 school year.

The Board also voted unanimously to increase the base salary for a new teacher in the Johnson-Brock school district by $1,000.

Superintendent Jeff Koehler informed the Board he expects to learn in April or May if the District is awarded a Nemaha NRD grant for the school courtyard.

Drivers Education will be offered at Johnson-Brock this summer. The cost will be $250 per student. A contract was approved to have Tim Newman serve as instructor, being paid $150 per student.

Many Signals Communications