Plea in Marysville Human Trafficking Case

(KMZA)--A Marysville woman accused of trafficking a minor for prostitution has entered into a plea agreement.

The Marysville Advocate reports 19-year-old Miranda Cain pleaded “no contest” this week in Marshall County District Court to a charge of aggravated human trafficking of a child. In exchange for the plea, a charge of commercial sexual exploitation of a child was dismissed.

Sentencing was set for April 26th.

The plea cancels a jury trial in the case, which had been set for April 6th.

Cain was arrested in June of last year after the Marysville Police Department and Marshall County Sheriff’s Department conducted an undercover operation at a local motel. Authorities say Cain had brought a girl born in 2001 to the motel to have sex with an adult male in exchange for money.

The juvenile was taken into protective custody at the time.
