Hearings Postponed in Hiawatha Burglary Case

(KNZA)--The preliminary hearings for two men charged in connection with a Hiawatha residential burglary late last month have been pushed back.

The hearings for 21-year-old Timothy Cooke, of Atchison, and 18-year-old Josh Sangrait, of Hiawatha, were continued Wednesday to April 27th.

The two are each charged with burglary, felony theft and misdemeanor criminal damage to property. In addition, Cooke faces a charge of criminal possession of a firearm.

The two are accused of breaking into a home at 208 Cherokee on February 26th. Taken were two rifles and two handguns valued at between $1,000 and $25,000.

Cooke and Sangrait were arrested earlier this month following an investigation by the Hiawatha Police Department.

Cooke remains in the Brown County Jail on a $40,000 bond, while Sangrait is currently free on a $20,000 bond.
