Prison Sentence in Home Invasion Case

(KNZA)--A Horton area man charged in an armed home invasion last April on the Kickapoo Reservation has been sentenced to more than 5 years in prison.

22-year-old Andrew Darnell was sentenced Friday in Brown County District Court to a total of 64 months in prison on charges of robbery, aggravated burglary and aggravated assault. Darnell was given credit for 366 days served in jail.

He pleaded no contest to the charges in December. In exchange for the plea, two other charges were dismissed.

Darnell is the last of three men to be sentenced in the case.

Wesley Banks was sentenced in January to nearly 11 years in prison and Tyler “Tiger” Banks was sentenced to more than 9 years in prison for their roles in the April 24th home invasion.
