

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=57768>

Hiawatha Police Plan Saturation Patrols

(KNZA)--The Hiawatha Police Department plans to hold saturation patrols this weekend.

According to a post on its Facebook page, the department plans to patrol Saturday and Sunday evenings and early morning.

Police Chief John Defore says the focus of the saturation patrol is to put extra officers on the street for the sole purpose of enforcing DUI, party patrols, and other juvenile and traffic crimes.

Because its graduation weekend, Defore says they want extra officers out making sure everyone is parting legally and safely.

Many Signals Communications