Additional Candidate Files for Area KS House Seat

(KNZA)--An additional candidate has filed to represent the 61st District in the Kansas House of Representatives.

According to the Kansas Secretary of State's Office, Hoyt resident Lauren Van Wagoner filed last week on the Democratic ticket.

She joins two Republicans, Dan Brenner, of Holton, and Francis Averkamp, of St. Marys, in seeking the seat currently held by Becky Hutchins. The Holton Republican has announced she doesn't plan to seek re-election.

The 61st District includes most of Jackson and Pottawatomie Counties.

Candidates have until noon, June 1st to file. The Kansas primary election is August 2nd and the general election is November 8th.
