Elwood Man Charged in Club Shooting

(MSC News)---An Elwood man has been charged in connection with a shooting last month outside a club in downtown St. Joseph.

KQ2-TV reports Buchanan County Prosecutor Dwight Scoggins charged 37-year-old Angel Maisonet-Laboy Thursday with a felony count of second-degree assault.

According to court documents, Maisonet-Laboy and the victim were engaged in a fight outside Club Flatline in the 600 block of Felix Street early the morning of May 8th when he went to his vehicle and retrieved a handgun. Maisonet-Laboy then returned to the area of the fight and allegedly fired two shots, one which struck the victim in the upper leg.

He remains in the Buchanan County Jail on a $50,000 bond.
