

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=58941>

Identity of Man Found In Missouri River Revealed

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb. (AP) - Authorities say a body has been recovered from the Missouri River.

Cass County Sheriff William Brueggemann says a fisherman found the body Thursday afternoon near the mouth of the Platte River.

Nebraska City radio station KNCY reports that the body was later identified as that of a 42-year-old Omaha resident, Tim Mohr.

An autopsy has been ordered.

Associated Press