

Jefferson Co Fair Starts Monday

(KAIR)--Fair season continues, with Jefferson County getting into the action on Monday.

Following morning entries, the sheep and meat goat shows will be held that evening, opened with a Flag Raising Ceremony by the 4-H Ambassadors.

Tuesday will include the morning swine and poultry shows, followed by the afternoon bucket calf show, leading up to the 67th annual fair parade at 7:00.

The 2016 Jefferson County Fair Royalty will be crowned following the parade.

Wednesday will begin at 8:00 with the rabbit show, followed by the beef-steer-heifer show.

The evening will include an ice cream social, with cake, from 6 until 8:00, along with the 4-H talent show and the dance company performances.

The Bucket Calf Costume Parade, followed by a Pedal Power Tractor Pull, will wrap up the day.

Thursday will begin at 8:00 with the dairy goat show, followed by the dairy show.

The Livestock Auction is set for 6:00 that evening, with the fair to wrap up with the 4-H dance from 8:30 to 11:00 Thursday night.

Many Signals Communications