

Holton Man Bound Over on Charges in Sex Case

(KNZA)--A Holton man facing sex-related charges in six separate cases has been bound over for trial on charges in the fifth case.

21-year-old Jacob Ewing was bound over on charges of rape, aggravated criminal sodomy and aggravated kidnapping following a preliminary hearing Wednesday in a Jackson County Courtroom.

The charges stem from alleged offenses occurring in January 2015 involving a woman who is now 20.

Ewing was bound over last month on charges in the first four cases following a preliminary hearing.

Arraignment in all five cases is now set for November 10th.

Ewing was arrested September 1st on sex-related charges in a sixth case involving child under the age of 14. A preliminary hearing in that case is scheduled for October 27th.

With the latest case, Ewing now faces 19 sex-related charges.

He remains in the Jackson County Jail.
