

Woman Sentenced On Burglary Charge
(KAIR)--60 days in jail.

That's the sentence handed down to the Atchison woman convicted in an Atchison County burglary.

41-year-old Tracey Vollmer was sentenced in Atchison County District Court this week to 13 months in prison, but that sentence was suspended to two years probation including the 60 days behind bars on a charge of burglary of a dwelling.

Charges for Vollmer stem from a September arrest in connection with a burglary report back in February.

Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie said Vollmer illegally entered a shed at a residence of 6879 Lincoln Road in Atchison County. That illegal entry left an air compressor and lawn mower missing.

Many Signals Communications