

Man Dies After Multiple-Vehicle Wreck On I-29

(KAIR)--A multiple-vehicle pile-up on I-29 in Platte County, Missouri early Saturday morning claimed the life of a Kansas City, Kansas man.

According to a report from the Missouri State Highway Patrol, it was around 12:18 Saturday morning when 35-year-old Maung Hnin was traveling on I-29, in the left lane, in a 2008 Ford Econoline with several other occupants. The vehicle travelled off the left side of the roadway and overturned.

Hnin was ejected, and struck by an unidentified vehicle.

The patrol says he was pronounced dead at the scene by deputies from the Platte county Sheriff's Office.

The report did not indicate whether wintery conditions were a factor in the wreck. Several others were injured in the wreck with injuries ranging from minor to moderate.
