

Domestic Battery Sends Father and Son to Jail

(KMZA)--A domestic dispute leads to the arrest of a Seneca father and his son on charges.

Seneca Police Chief Jordan Weaver says 64-year-old Keith Scott and his 38-year-old son, Joshua, were arrested Monday after the police department responded to a domestic dispute at 711 Amador Street.

He says when officers arrived they found both intoxicated.

Keith Scott was arrested on charges of aggravated assault, battery on a law enforcement officer and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Joshua Scott was arrested on charges of domestic battery and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Both remain in the Nemaha County Jail.
