

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=61356>

Conservation District will hold 70th Annual Meeting

The Nemaha County Conservation District will hold their 70th Annual Meeting on Thursday, February 16, 2017, at the Nemaha County Community Building in Seneca. The public is invited to attend. A free meal, furnished by the Nemaha County Bankers Association, will be served from 6 to 7 p.m. The business meeting will begin at 7 p.m.

An election of two supervisors of the Nemaha County Conservation District Board will be held. The term of office for Mike Schmitz and Ken Kramer will expire. Other current board members are, James Dobbins, Aaron Georg and Rosalyn Stallbaumer. Prizes will be presented to the winners of the conservation district's poster and limerick contests; as well as state awards.

Jason & Jada Conley and Jim Kesler will be presented the Kansas Bankers Association's Soil Conservation Awards, Joe Sperflage will receive the Windbreak Award, and Helen Sourk will receive the Grassland Award. The Buffer Award will be presented to Will & Charity Henry and Clint Strahm will receive the Water Quality Award. The Nemaha County Chapter of Pheasants Forever will present Mike & Larry Grollmes the Wildlife Habitat Award.

If you need special assistance please contact us at 785-336-2186x110