

Atchison Teacher Remembered

📷 Photo Credit: Facebook

(KAIR)--A well known Atchison teacher is being remembered.

Fred Anderson died Wednesday in Olathe, where he currently resided, at the age of 84.

According to his obituary, the longtime Atchison resident spent 42-years in the teaching field, spending 35 of those in Atchison classrooms.

A 3D art and stage craft instructor at the Atchison High School and Middle School, Anderson also taught stage design and technical theatre courses at Mount Saint Scholastica College and Saint Benedict College.

He was known for his work in local theatre, designing and building sets for school and community theatre productions.

Among Anderson's survivors is his wife of 44-years, Peggy.

Funeral services will be Monday morning at Olathe's Prince of Peace Church.

Many Signals Communications