

Pawnee City School Board Extends Principal's Contract

(KLZA)-- The Pawnee City School Board has approved extending the contract of Principal Don Jacob's for one year with a 4 percent salary increase.

In other action last week the Board voted unanimously to accept with regret, the applications for early separation for math teacher William Bohling and P.E. instructor Alan Strong.

Approval was also given to authorize Superintendent Brian Rottinghaus to finalize an agreement with Midwest Tennis and Track to resurface the track, high jump pad and runways for the low bid of $142,000.

Continued membership in the Nebraska Association of School Boards was also approved with membership renewal dues of just over $3,300.
