

Election Day in Missouri

(KLZA)-- It's election day in Missouri. Polls for the General Municipal Election are open until 7 Tuesday evening.

Contested races in Holt County include:

Mound City School Board – 3 to be elected – candidates are Jeff Holstine, Brian Tubbs, Chad Derr, Chris Zembles and Wendy Tubbs.

South Holt School Board – 3 to be elected – candidates are Patrick Ezzell, Charles Tiger Parsons, John Mackey and Neal Prussman.

Nodaway-Holt School board – 3 to be elected – candidates include Nicholas Madden, James Fuhrman, Timothy Scott Clement, Jane Hanson and Jerrod Plummer.

For Mound City Rural Fire Protection Board – elect 1 – John Block and Bill Keiffer are seeking the position.

City of Craig – Alderman – electing 1 – candidates include Richard Thomas, Trevor Drewes and Bruce Ideker.

There is also a ballot question in Maitland on whether or not to extend the 24-cent tax levy per $100 of valuation for general operations, street improvements and repairs for another 4-year period.

In Mound City Phil Blazer Jason Bierman, Duane Nauman and Michael Davis are seeking a 2-year term as South Ward Alderman.

The Village of Big Lake will vote on Proposition One. Shall the 30-cent increase in the levy on $100 of assessed valuation for general pumping and dredging expenses within the Village of Big Lake be extended for four years?

Shall the South Union Township Special Road District of Holt County levy an additional tax rate of 35-cent levy per $100 of assessed valuation for four years.

In Atchison County, Missouri, there are a number of ballot questions concerning tax levy's.

Rock Port voters will say yes or no to imposing a one-half percent sales tax for transportation purposes.

Fairfax voters will decided on continuing a tax levy of 30-cents for general municipal purposes for four years.

The Village of Watson residents will decide whether or not to extend a 30-cent levy for four years.

The Watson Special Road District voters will also decide on a 4-year extension of the 35-cent levy.

In Tarkio, Scott Poppa and Jamie Clark Caldwell are seeking a two-year terms as North Ward Alderman.

In Fairfax Ryan Kingery and Jacob Bradbury are running for Mayor.

In Westboro Jerry Kirkpatrick and Shawn Manchester are running for Mayor while Nathan Vardman, Joseph Cason and Michael Marr seek the two Alderman seats.

Many Signals Communications