

Falls City School Leadership Positions Announced

(KLZA)-- Falls City Public Schools have announced three individuals will be stepping into leadership positions as District 56 prepares for the start of the 2017-18 school year.

In a news release, Superintendent Tim Heckenlively congratulated Kristene Ogle who has accepted the position of Curriculum & Professional Development Director. She has 23 years experience as an elementary teacher, 14 of them with Falls City Public Schools.

Jason Vitosh will serve as the K-12 High Ability Learner Coordinator and Math Coach, in addition to his teaching duties in the high school mathematics department. Vitosh has been with the Falls City High school mathematics department for 18 years and is a Robert Noyce Master Teacher Fellow.

Wendy Craig is advancing from a position on the School Improvement Steering Committee to the School Improvement Co-Chair position. She has taught 16 years in District 56.

Many Signals Communications