All College Reunion at Peru State

(KLZA)-- Peru State College is hosting an all-college reunion this weekend.

All alumni and friends are invited to the Peru State campus for the events.

Registration begins Friday from 3 – 6:00 p.m. There will be campus tours throughout the weekend, a party to launch a book detailing the 150-year history of Peru State College, class photos, workshops and a block party on the Campus Quad.

The theme for the all-college reunion is “Shaping Nebraska’s Future for 150 Years.

Alumni will have a chance to look back at the history and get a look into the changes that have occurred at Nebraska’s first college.

For more information on the year-long celebration go the Peru State website at peru.edu and click on the Peru State College 150 shield.
