

No Contest Plea in Brown Co Burglary Case

(KNZA)--A Hiawatha man accused of breaking into a rural Brown County residence twice has entered into a plea agreement.

33-year-old William Schaefer pleaded “no contest” this week in Brown County District Court to one count each of burglary and felony theft.

In exchange for the plea, two additional counts of burglary and theft were dismissed.

Sentencing was set for August 7th.

Schaefer is accused of breaking into a residence at 1567 250th Street twice and stealing numerous items.

Among the items stolen were a laptop computer, DVD player, game camera, several bows, pocket knives and jewelry.

He remains in the Brown County Jail on a $15,000 bond.’
